My heart breaks for Pam and your girls, they love and miss you so very much,as dad and I do, your brothers are missing you very much, you just cant imagine how much, and the effect you had on your familys life, as well as all of your friends. There is a void that will never be filled. Thank you for all of the wonderful talks that we had, and for all of the love that you gave to me,daddy, and your brothers.It makes me so happy when I think of how happy the girls were when you would pick them up from school, or take them to there dr. appts. they were so proud of there Big Strong Handsome Father. People can have their own thoughts on how they feel about me. I take it with a grain of salt and consider the source. You and I had many heart to heart talks about our problems.No one can truly understand the pain that a family [wife and children] have to overcome when the love of your life, the one who said would always be there to take care of you and you depend on is suddenly ripped away from you and no matter how hard you reach out and fight to get your loved one back,he is always and painfully in arms reach but yet you can't pull him back and win the battle by beating the enemy.You always feel that you are suffocating from the inside out. Rest in peace my sweat husband. Tony I know that your pain and sadness that you were battle is now over. You are now free from pain and you are looking down at me and our girls with a joyful and happy heart. You will always be our guardian angel. I look forward to the day when it is my home coming and you will be there waiting for me with open arms like you always promised you would be.Thank you for choosing me as your wife and loving me as you did. No one can ever take that away from us. TONY AND PAM "ALWAYS AND FOREVER" All my love your Wife/Boo PAM

My Dearest Love TONY As I sit here pondering over what words to use to express my thoughts and feelings,I am finding it to be very difficult. The pain of loosing you is too deep to even try to explain how I feel.You are and always will be my one and only true love.You became my boyfriend on 4-22-1981,then became my husband on 3-16-1991.We were blessed with 4 very beautiful daughters.People will never truly understand the ups and downs that our family [you, me, and ours girls] had to endure. Our highs and our lows that we as a family had to go through can never be expressed in a way that people can say they understand. No body will ever understand the heartache and pain that our family was and still is going through. I don't expect any one to understand what we feel. You and I always knew deep within that my heart and yours would always beat as one. The lord brought us together as a family and a family we will always be. Your life will always live on through our daughters. People say time heals all wounds. Part of that is true, but the wound that me you and ours girls have is painfully very, very deep. As our wound starts to heal I know it will leave a deep scar in all of us.
