We count it a privilege to have met Angelina. We know that she now rests in Jesus awaiting his voice when he shall call her and she will answer. Job_14:13 ...that thou wouldst appoint me a set time, and remember me! Rev 21:4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

Dear JP, Dom & Rose, We are so sorry to hear of the loss of your Mother, Angie. We met her once at your wedding JP and she seemed to be the typical Italian Mom, a caring loving mother who cared even for her childrens friends and making sure we had enough to eat!!! We pray that she is at peace with our Lord God and that all of her family and friends who have gone before her are all celebrating her coming home and that they are praying for all of us here as we cherish the memories she has left for all of us.

Rosie, Dom, John & Mary - our heartfelt sympathy over losing your mom. So many memories growing up with you. We will miss her forever. Yup - she was a fantastic cook. I always hoped to learn some of her secrets. She was such a wonderful friend to my mom who would melt when she got Angie's lasagna for her birthday! We will keep you in our prayers.

To The Family of Angelina Firetto I'm sorry for the loss of your dear loved one, and may you find encouragement from the God of all comfort thru his word the bible at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all are tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God." (Psalms 83:18)
