Hollis brought much joy to our lives these last two years. He was a wonderful father to my children. They loved and adored him. We had a lot of good times and good memories. He taught us things we had never even imagined. Thank you all for your well wishes. We miss him terribly.

A poem for you Hollis Wayne.... Please give me the ability To understand To be more than just-another man To accomplish all the things I was sent here to do And to touch the World gently As I pass through Hollis Wayne was my cousin, he used to tease me when I was young, as I got a little older & turned into a teenager, he was working @ a Bar called Taboo downtown. I would wait up for him to get home every Friday & Saturday night. He would always stop @ Taco Bell & when when he got home we would watch movies as he would tell me while he would tell me all the famous people he had met that night. Hollis Wayne was a sensitive but tortured soul, He got lost & this time he could not find his way home. We will all miss him in our own ways But he will forever be in our hearts & memories. So remember God is mending his soul. We all LOVE YOU HOLLIS WAYNE :)
