Scott was a wonderful friend. He would give you the shirt off of his back without hesitation. Sad to say when he moved back to Michigan, we didn't talk as much but I still thought about him. Heaven has another angel. My thoughts and prayers are with Robert and Scott's family and friends.

I remember the first time I met you; the Bears were having dinner at the Eagle and you were there bartending. You were such a kind, friendly and sweet guy; that never changed from the first time I met you! Over the 12 years we've been friends you've always had a smile on your face and a hug for me. I will miss that! You will always have a special place in my heart and I will remember you always! Rest In Peace and now you are one of God's Angels smiling down among us! xoxoxo

What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. With deepest sympathy and Love, Rob & Louis

My deepest sympathy to Rob Stern and the family of Scott McCallister. At times like this I have always found comfort in the following prose.
