May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Moore family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead

I am sorry for your loss. Losing a friend or family member in death is never easy. One thing that helps me cope with the loss of a loved one is the scripture John 5:28, 29. It says: "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life..." Soon you will be able to see Jimmy again because our Creator promises to resurrect those who are sleeping in death. I hope that this promise from the Almighty God has offered some comfort.

Jimmy Moore set an example to all who knew him. There was no more faithful husband, father and neighbor than "Jim" (everyone called him "Jimmy" but my parents and I called him "Jim."). His was a calming presence on University Street. He worked hard whether it was at his job or at his home. He and Madelon were a team that everyone counted on. My deepest sympathies to Madelon, Andrea and Debbie. They don't make them like Jim any more.
