I am so sorry for your loss. I don't think I ever saw Aunt Lorraine when she wasn't wearing a smile with laughter not far behind. She welcomed me into her family with open arms & made me feel like family from the very beginning. I will miss her dearly.

Our most sincere condolences on the loss of one GREAT lady. Lorraine was the BEST big sister ever. We will miss our long chats. What an example she was to her brothers, sisters, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. May God give you all his peace and grace as you face the days ahead.
