I thought of Kim just the other day when remembering fondly of putting our allowances together to get party supplies and hang out in the park after the dance. Kim and I spent many years of our youth laughing, talking, dreaming and having a great time. Though our paths went separate ways in the early 90s, I will always remember her laugh. She was sunshine and she will be missed. My prayers are with Kim's family and friends.

My thoughts and prayers go out to your family Kim in this sad time of grieving. You were my closet, dearest best friend that holds all our fun and bad memories and i can not believe the time has come for me to say good bye to you:( You were my best friend and the mother of a very loving nephew that you gave to me. I will always cherish our memories that i have and will treasure them! I love you my dear friend and will miss you dearly but will see you again someday;) Say hello to both our daddy's because i know you are flying high with them both;) You are gone BUT NOT forgotten!! I LOVE YOU KIM!! Love always your best friend Tamara. XXoXXo
