Andrea I am so sorry I can not be there due to working, I pray you and A J make it threw this hang in there. And for Mike I am so sorry for you also I will say a pray and I am so glad she is out of pain now and she is going to be able to be with all of her family now and at peace. I am sure Tommy will be the first to great her there and Bobby right behind him She is now in Good hands and she will can now Rest in God's Loving hands and look down on us. Please remember she has no more pain though she loves the ones she has left behind she has missed the ones that went before her much more then she ever said she did and will be with them I love you guys take care and my heart ways heavy for you that have lost her but I so rejoice she is now going to see her son's and that make me happy to know the will be rejoin together in God house.
