My dear sister in Christ, my heart is so heavy for u. There is a song that says "if there r no words to say, just say Jesus" This is what I say to u, my dear friend. As we get older, together, the hugs we give & receive get tighter & longer. We learn that life is gift from Our Father, that our forever home is Heaven, where all our loved ones are waiting for us. With hope in our hearts we also wait. Be blessed with Peace my friend. Hugs to u, Debbie & Bill

You were such a wonderful and caring wife and he was blessed to be the recipient of your affection and attention and devotion. May your whole family feel at peace knowing you were there for him here on earth, and now he is in His hands. Love you

I am feeling so sad today after hearing about the loss of my dear cousin Gary. So many sweet memories of my childhood are of the times Gary, Janet and me would hang out together in their Hazel Park neighborhood all those years ago. We would have so much fun just being typical teenagers. I always felt safe when I was with Gary. And boy, did he make me laugh. Gary, you were one cool cat. And to Denise, Colleen and Adam and all of Gary's extended family, May the support and love you receive from family and friends help sustain you and give you strength as the days, weeks and months unfold.
