Hey grandma, it's been 7 years now... I miss you everyday. I'm a senior! You would be so proud of me. Yesterday I got into a car accident, I'm okay. It made me think of how lucky I am to be alive. How are you all doing up there? I miss and love you ❤️

To my JoAnnie. As a child you & I baked cookies, cakes and those little cinnamon rolls from the left over dough ... for the Cracker Jack prizes you kept in that zipper pencil case that you shared with me, Rick & Cris ... Sorry for barging into your bed room while you were honeymooning; I was only seven then! I wanted you to pierce my girlfriends' ears Oops! I pierced them on my own! I did a good job & told her mom that you pierced them. For these memories, I thank you & will always remember our fun times. Take my love with you on your Journey.
