Dave & Sons: I never met Sandy or your family, but I feel like I know all of you. My husband and I were very dear friends with Sandy's Aunt Bettye. Bettye loved your family, she would tell me wonderful things about you. She always said, I don't know how Sandy keeps going with those 3 boys, always doing something with them. I am so sorry for your loss of your beautiful wife and boys your wonderful mom. I am sure Sandy was met by her mom, dad, Aunt Bettye and Jenny. Always treasure the beautiful happy times that your family all had together. I am holding you in my prayers, and may Our Lord help you through these dark days. In Christ Lou Ann James

The last 6 years of my life have been the best 6 years of my life. When I met Steve, I knew that he came from a family that loved each other, supported each other, communicated with each other and unselfishly gave everything of themselves for the people they loved. I gained two amazing parents and friends (as so many people did) when I met Sandy and Dave. I am so glad that I was able to thank her for the beautiful life I was given in her son, Steven. His soul couldn't be more perfect and I am proud of the man he is, because he has two parents who loved him and raised him and his brothers to be a reflection of each of them. I love how much love Dave and Sandy had for each other - that they respected each other and made so many memories traveling, hiking, camping and being parents to their three sons whom they love so much. So many people don't have the opportunity to share what this family does and now will grieve such a loss. My heart aches and I only wish that I could take away the pain for Dave, Steven and Mark - and for Michael. The bond this family shares will grow stronger through this loss of such a beautiful life. For us, she will miss so many things we will wish she could be a part of, although I know she will always be with us. I am so happy that we were able to know just how happy she was. I will miss her smile, her hugs and sharing in common that we both combined the last one third of the Honey Nut Cheerios box in hopes that Steve wouldn't ever know. I love all of you and wish for comfort and peace. Jennifer Coleman

I didn't get to make many memories with Sandra but if you talk to my husband next to his own mother there is no greater lady. He grew up around her and her family and loves them like his own. A genuinely good person. An Angel on earth and an Angel in heaven.
