I am so sorry I cannot be there for your final resting place. I am there in spirit. I member the shy and quiet sherry though at times you would see her mad sherry, but she would soon get over that and go on as usual. She became a very strong person after she found out that she has Lupus and fought to the end. I am proud of my sister she was a great person, loving wife & wonderful mother to Chris & her grand children. I know that she is now with Our parents in Heaven having a great conversation about all things happening now in all our lives to catch them up on things , but I bet they already know & watch over all of us. Just as they watched over her in her time of need. I will always have you my thoughts and prayers every day until we all meet together again some day.Love & miss you Karen & Walt
