I'll never forget my childhood days at Fairlanes with Lorraine and my mom Judy. She kept me full with fluids (pop) all day and even let me get it myself as I ate all her olives behind the bar. I can remember my mom and her heading off to Las Vegas and coming over to swim in her pool. I'm sure they did goofy single lady things as they were always laughing. Last time I got to see her was at Beaumont as a patient herself and I was working in the EC and immediately Liz and her mom remembered me. She now joins my mom and I hope they can once again laugh again.. Prayers to all her family, Julie Van De Wiele-Kumm

I can remember her when if there wasn't a Pepsi in the house she would go to the store for one, and if you drank the last one, she would get after you. Monica Morey
