Mom I miss you so much already. You were such a quiet person not quick to lose your temper and always just smiling and shaking your head at the things we kids would say or do. The love you had for your grandchildren and great grandchildren could easily be seen because of the gigantic smile on your face. We all know how hard you worked to take care of dad and not ever worrying about your own aches and pains thinking they just come with age. I am so glad you are pain free but selfish in hurting that time went so fast and you were gone. I will always be thankful for the tighter hugs and the multitude of I love you's that were shared knowing you would soon be with God and Dad. R.I.P. Jeannie. You are now Home Sweet Home. XO
