I remember when there was an ice storm and we went to stay with Linda and Danny on Middlesex, Jason was a baby. I remember the love he showed but especially the way he was around my dad. They opened their home to us all. He was genuine, generous and gracious. Aunt Linda, I remember watching her as a kid when she was a teenager and thinking she was beautiful the man who won my princess heart needed to be a prince. She found him. I will always respect who you were to me and how you always gave from the heart. taking our boys when we needed a weekend sitter or just being there. Your legacy of love will live on in your wife, sons and their families. I could go on and on because the stories do. You will be greatly missed.

My favorite memories of Uncle Danny are the many times when we'd gather together as family. He was always interested in what was going on in my life and patiently listened to my thoughts. He'd also give good advice about issues of the day. He was always caring and kind. I will miss his wonderful smile as well. He always looked out for those in need. He helped my brother Rick a great deal and I will always be grateful for the love and concern he showed to him and time he spent helping him as well. Rest in Peace Uncle Danny. Our loss is heaven's gain.
