It is very difficult to choose the right words of comfort and to express the sadness we are feeling. This is not the time for us to grieve but it's our time to celebrate Sylvia's life. She would not want to see people cry. She wanted to make everyone happy. So at this moment, let's think back and remember how Sylvia touched our lives. How she made us laugh and how good Sylvia was as a person. This is not the moment for us to shed our tears but we should all be thankful that we were given the chance to know a woman like Sylvia. Sylvia will forever be missed but I know in my heart, I will meet Sylvia again, We will all meet again and she will make us laugh in tears again. We will never forget Sylvia my beloved cousin.. Aunt Sylvia was a great fun Aunt. We always had a good time with her. She was always quick with a story or a smile.

Diane, David & Donna-I'm so sorry to hear about your mom's passing. Our prayers are with you and your families. I've not talked to Sylvia in several years but have very fond memories of all of you from when we lived in Michigan. I know this is a difficult time but want you to know your family in Arkansas is thinking about you. Love to all of you.....Linda Lewis, Jeff Lewis and Cindy Lewis Marks

Mom,I am glad we were there to see and visit you before you became so very sick. I know that you will be well taken care of by your dad and your husband. I'm sure Jim will throw in a lunch or two. :) He so enjoyed your company and dad's. I hope this token of a donation to the Detroit Tiger's Foundation will help others in memory of you and dad. I miss and love you Diane

Sylvia Broughton, a great lady, and a person that would give you the shirt of her back. She always had a good word for all, and loved so many people. The world is a little less bright because of her passing. I am proud to say that she touched me and my children, in so many positive ways. She will be missed by all. God bless. J Woods

I loved you forever. When you were sick I stayed by your side everyone loved you who took care of you in your need . God bless you were never in pain and went in peace to be with dad. You cared and loved so many people and put others before yourself. I hope others will take notice in the fact how caring you are and were. Your angels are with you now just as they were when you saw them before passing your my hero and inspiration . may god look over you and dad for eternity . See you on the other side. I love you to the moon and back. I hope you and dad will never stop clowning around. Heaven what a beautiful place it must be.I love you both Dimples in your cheek but she's pretty. You both would say that to me and I will never forget you both.Rest in peace
