We knew Ted (as Ted) for less than a year, a very short time. He will be missed at our family functions, the delightful voice will be missed, simple witty comments will be missed, monumental opinionated conversations will be missed, but the joy he brought will remain with us. There are so many. Teddy called me one day to ask me to be his partner in Golf. I knowing he wasn't that good I said yes just to be with him and have fun. Over the years he improved and each time he broke 50 every person in the club house new it. Well the day he shot his best round 42 and he beat me (Grant) he was out of control. Buying drinks all of it. He was rubbing it in my face and we laughed so hard. Well the next week he shot his worst round like a 59. Well you can imagine what happen that night. I just loved the guy and was a true friend.
