Brad was an outstanding musician and an all-around great guy. I will never forget his kindness and luthier skills in repairing my old Gibson guitar when it was seriously damaged and thought to be a total loss. God's peace be with you, Brad, and to your family as well. Jim Habarth

I met Brad in 69', and from that point we have walked many a mile discussing and learning from each other about life, music, friendship and death. I sit here now with a bottle of 16 year old Scotch and a wonderful cigar thinking about all of our discoveries and escapades we shared over the years; tears and laughter!! I'm saddened that I could not be there for him and I am keeping Mary, Debbie and Wanda in my thoughts. I will miss you my friend.Ken I

My husband and I are shocked by the news of Brad's passing. I've known Brad since I was a little girl, watching him play guitar in a band with my father on drums. He was always kind to me and my family. I'll always remember him as a rock and roller and incredible musician. My prayers are with Mary. - Rebecca Klug (Driscoll)

Brad's sense of humor was one of his many admirable qualities. Many a time I had to think twice deciding if Brad was serious or just pulling my leg, 99.9% of the time it was my leg. His love for Mary always showed in his eyes. My thoughts and prayers go out to Mary and all of Brad's family. God bless you all.

I am so saddened to hear that such a wonderful, kind, gentle, loving and funny human being has passed. He will be missed so much but know that he is with the Lord our Savior rocking it out in Heaven on his guitar and we will see him again soon. My love and condolences are with Mary and his entire family at this difficult time.
