To all the Mulligan family and my friend Laura from our neighborhood together sharing so much growing up. I have had you all constantly on my mind and in my heart these past few days and I will continue to pray you find comfort and peace as you go down the road without your awesome father. I immediately thought back to the times when I would be at your house when he came home from work and how he checked in you and your mom and talked a bit with his kind voice and his way off pulling the day together. I could go on and on it seems. I just hope you all know that I was blessed by sharing time with your family and send hugs and tears and prayers of comfort to embrace as well.

I was so very saddened to hear of Bob's passing. Although we seemed to meet only at Rudy and Whitney gatherings I've had a special place in my heart for Bob, Marty and the whole family. My love and prayers go out to the whole family. Laura, my thoughts are with you and Betsy and the rest of the family. So glad he made it out for the Christening. What a great time that was. All the Great Grandparents of Evvy's were there. May the love shared by the whole family give you all comfort, for love is a bond never broken.

Bob Mulligan was a giant among men. He cherished Marty and their kids, and made sure everyone knew it. Bob never met a stranger; he was the most welcoming guy ever. I met him as a teenager when Laura and I were classmates, and was instantly smitten with him and his beautiful wife and family. I abused their open door policy, I'm sure, but was greeted every visit with a smile, a hug, and a scotch...or two. He was a humble, devout man. Mr Mulligan never bragged about anything except his kids and grandkids, and brag about them he did! He was a gentleman, and a gentle man. He was the life of every party, and will be so dearly missed. While I grieve for Mrs Mulligan and their wonderful family, I rejoice that he has earned his reward. God bless you and keep you, dear Mr Mulligan, and cause His light to shine upon you. With love, Jane Walsh.
