I did not know Kristy but, as a mom, my heart aches for her three beautiful children. My prayer is that they will find peace and know that God will never leave them nor forsake them.

We had some of the best summers together growing up. We loved swimming in the pool, playing marco polo, and hanging out with all the cousins. This is the only picture I could find that helps capture those memories. You were the perfect "barbie doll"; smart, beautiful, fun and kind. You will truly be missed by all!

I sold Kristy and Noah their first house, way back in 2001, on Frembes in Waterford. They were an impressive young couple, dating at the time and I was stunned at their youth and yet, at their young ages, impressed that they were buying a home. I'm even more stunned at this entire situation. My condolences to Kristy, her children and her family.
