Al was always like a grandfather to my sisters and I. Very great neighbor and friend to my parents. My favorite memory of Al and Georgia was every year around Christmas time when we were little, they would make us up gift bag full of goodies. I will never forget how they treated us just like we were their own grandkids. I love you Al. May you rest easy! Love Kirstie (Ryan) Nordquest

I have known Al since I was 15 year's old. He & I were good friend's back in the day. I hung around with most of the guys that worked at Carmens & went with them to deliver pizza's. Several of the guy's had Red Valiant's & when the seen each other coming down the street they would stop & jump out of the car's & act silly & call each other funny names. We had good times together & even tho we did'nt stay in touch Al I will miss so very much. You were a great friend & our great times will stay with me forever. I love you Al, thanks for the memories. With Love Patricia Greenan Marochek.
