She was a big part of my growing up. Living next door to your family will always be a great memory. I always stopped to visit with her when ever I was in the old neighborhood, and she always knew who I was and never forgot. She will be so very missed. RIP Aunt Juanita... Dee-Dee

Wow, I am starring at her picture and tears come rolling down once again. I hope all of you know how much I loved your mother, I enjoyed our Olive Garden lunches, dinners and the Christmas visits that made her and I both smile! She was one special lady. She is now with my mom and brother and I am sure Joe and her are talking up a storm and reminiscing old times and mom and her are now forever happy! God Bless! Love Amy
