When I was young I spent a lot of time over at the co-op. It was a great place to do things like find leaches and crayfish in the Red run drain, ride our mini bikes or climb trees. (I'm not very good at climbing trees) Uncle Gill would pile all of us kids into the trailer and pull us around with the tractor, we had bonfires at night and we would. Listen to him sing some French songs. It was a great time. Aunt Donna and Uncle Gill always made me feel welcome. I will miss them very much. Tim
