My heart goes out to all of Margaret's family and friends. A few years ago when I was making plans to visit my Michigan family after several decades apart, she invited me to stay with her so I wouldn't have to stay in a hotel. She took me to a lot of the the places that were important to me during my trip and even hosted a family reunion. She made it possible for me to spend time with family and meet spouses and children that I had only "met" on Facebook. Margaret definitely had a big heart. She will be dearly missed.

Margaret lived across the street from my elderly mother and would look in on her from time to time, especially when things might've seemed amiss. Never asked for anything in return. I slept better knowing that Margaret was watching over her. Rest In Peace Margaret.

She was such a blessing to have in my younger years. My auntie was tough as nails, feared nothing but had a heart of gold. She was pure joy, had a wonderful smile and made a living in a hard, dirty way al the while raising 2 intelligent, respectful boys. My heart is broken but rest well with my dad, parents. Love you to infinity and beyond and thank you for the role you have played in my life. I will forever be grateful!
