Charlie will be greatly missed. Don and I had many years of good times with him. The laughs we shared. The dinners we shared and the hunting times that they had. This is only a small part of those great memories that we have shared. He is at peace now and is in a better place. My whole family will miss him.

We remember first time meeting our neighbor Charlie, big smile and wanting to please and welcome us as his neighbor, he once asked us if we wanted him to put up fence so we wouldn't be bothered by his dogs and we said no we like it kept open and he said that is good, that told us he was going to be a good neighbor and he sure was and we will both miss his smile and friendly personality and making us feel like family !!!!!!!

Margeaux Kraft lit a candle in honor of Charlie.

I remember sitting in the back yard with Marcy's Papaw the first time I met him. He was telling me all about the house Marcy lived in at the time and how he owned a few others in the neighbor then he was telling me stories from his life and cracking jokes. He was always so funny when I saw him and he had the best smile. He will be very missed. Love, Margeaux Kraft and Steven Bulchak
