I am so sorry to hear of Ida's passing- almost two years later. I have a beautiful ceramic piece she gave my mom for Christmas, and I was thinking of her. She was a friend to many. God bless you all. Lisa Landry Fenner (Erie,PA)

I remember how Ida loved her family, playing the organ and how her church was so important to her. It was a blessing to grow up next to the Klebba's - you were not just neighbors, you were family. Prayers for loving comfort during this time of loss. Love and God's Blessings! Nancy and Michael Glenn

Ida was an old friend that loved her church, golf and the Madison Heights Woman's Club. I golfed with her for many years, worked on many Church activities.. She was someone that stood true to her beliefs. Ida so loved St. Dennis. She chaired many activities and was one of the first women to initiate The Madison Heights Woman's Tea at St. Dennis. May you rest in peace my friend, Kathy Connolly
