I just found out about Nick's passing because I really wanted to talk to him and googled when there was no answer on his phone. For those of you who remember ancient history, Nick and I have been friends for over 40 years and had kept in touch off and on these past several years. I cannot express how sad I am that Nick is no longer on this journey with us, but I am quite sure he and my brothers, who both passed within a month of Nick, are having a time trying to talk over one another on this next part of their journey!! can't tell you how much Nick has been on my mind these past couple of years - and I have wanted to get in touch with him, but life, circumstances, and such kept happening. My takeaway is - Always listen to your heart when it is trying to lead you to someone. I sure would have liked to give Nick a huge hug and tell him how much he meant to me all these years!RIP my friend.

Nick was not only my cousin, he was like a brother to me since we grew up across the street from one another. I will always remember his infectious laugh, clever mind, and boundless energy and the bond we shared as children. He will be missed by his family and close friends. I look forward to a reunion one day where he is healthy and whole again. Rest in peace, cousling! Cec Vettrano Strine

Nick was my cousin. I too remember his laugh and dry humor. He was loved more than he knew by his family. We will miss and remember him. RIP Nick.

I remember the first time I met Nick. We laughed and laughed and laughed. He had a sly sense of humor, and I miss that.
