We are so deeply sorry for the loss of Frank. He truly was a one of a kind man. We became neighbors with Frank and his family around 8 years ago. Frank wasn't so sure about us at first!! :)He would always stop whatever he was doing to say hello and chat for a few moments over the back fence. He reminded me very much of my grandfather, also named Frank, who we sadly lost a little over 4 years ago. While I was still grieving, your Frank warmed my heart with his stories, his silly jokes and his stern warnings of parking in his 'spot' - always followed by a smile - he was a consistent presence who showed us that there is still good to be found in unexpected places. He would never turn his back on anyone in need and he often went out of his way to help us and others whenever he was aware of a program, no matter how small. A kind and generous soul who we were blessed to have known and we will miss very much. May Frank be welcomed with open arms into paradise and he sits with the Father of all creation and smiles that trademark smile, telling of the life he has lived and of those he still walks with today, here on earth. I pray that in the coming weeks and months you will feel his presence and that it will help to bring you peace. We will always be here for anything you may need, at any time at all. You are all in our prayers. Debbie Nickles

Yes Debbie, you are 100% correct, you describe my uncle exactly how he was and if you were related to him those "warnings" would be 10x worse. You always left his house wanting to see him again because you missed those jabs as I like to call it
