Ginger and I worked in the schools of Hazel Park for many years and we always played this game called tag. At any given time, whoever was it, would try to tag the other and run off. Well, one time we were at Ford and Masserang was the principal. She caught me in the office and she was it. I ran through Jack's office and out with her chasing me! Nope...she didn't get me but she sure tried...I loved her so! Jack just laughed at us. Rest In Peace, my friend!

What a woman! So full of life and goodness. We shared so much just from working together in PTA, fundraising, caring for children, caring for each other, having sooo much fun at Ford Elementary School. We agreed on most things and disagreed on many but when the sun went down we were still friends. Some will remember that she could speak at least 3 languages! What a pleasure it was to have known you. I love you. Pat Schultz
