Janis, 65 years ago i couldn't stand the sight of you, yo was taking my big brother away from me. but after a few years after i saw how you treated my brother i wouldn't take a million dollars or all the gold in the world for you. God has gotten a perfect angel in heaven, and he couldn't have a better one. i am sure going to miss those Saturday morning breakfast you and i use to have waiting for joe to get up. i love you so much, you are going to be missed, not only by me, but everyone you came in contract with. love Tom

Thank you Auntie for the kind words about Momma. Know that she loved you lots!! ❤️

Dennis And Wanda lit a candle in honor of Janis.

Janis was gift for us for 40 years. God's gift to us. Janis had a special way of making us feel important and loved. Janis had a gift of song. Her beauty was exemplified in her soulful words and voice. We enjoyed many family parties, camping trips with our kids, trip to KY and TN which we shared with our mothers, and we especially loved our trip to CA hanging out by the pool and seeing the sights in LA and La Jolla. That was an awesome vacation. And Janis could always make a mean cheesecake. YUM. Janis was not just a friend. Janis is the true meaning of family. Family is not just blood relation. Family is a person who love and support you. A person you can confide in and trust. Janis will be missed but never forgotten. With love always, Dennis and Wanda.
