Paul was the kind of person that knows patience and diligence goes hand in hand. Paul was always pleasant and humble and always was there to help me when I needed him. I will miss Paul, I know he is now within in my heart and fond over memories I will cherish since my time working with him at Orlan's. I will pray for healing during this time of loss of our dear friend. May God bless you family. I lift you up to Jesus Christ. Love, Florence Tatro

My sincere condolences to you Pauline, Roger, Madeleine and Janet and to all your families. I remember when Paul came to Cornwall for visits with your parents when he was a young boy. He would call my mother ma tante blue hair because she tinted her hair and it came out a bluish color. We loved those visits and the good times we shared. May Paul's soul Rest In Peace. It was an honor to have worked with Paul at Orleans and I will always remember his humor and especially when someone was resting their eyes he would always jokingly say "Wake up, this ain't no rest home" yes, I will miss your funny sense of humor, your Navy stories and especially the stories of Kyle. You have fought the fight, now rest in peace my dear friend.
