I remember when I would get mad because Gracie would be in your room instead of mine. You taught me how to share our cat. Also, I remember you helping me decorate mom's mirror in the living room for xmas. You would place the clings all over and that lesson was it's ok if things don't have a specific place. You were always so kind to me and always called me your sister. Thank you for helping mom take care of Sydney when she was younger. She loves you so much. You are a very special person and we miss and love you so much. Rip brother.

Always hide behind the car when I came outside and I would wait to see if you would come out and then we would wave at each other! You were a blessing to all of us! You will now be with you Mom and Dad who loved you so much! Rest in Gods hands Steve no more pain now you are one of his perfect Angels!
