I will always cherish my visits and memories of Aunt Donna. Our talks and the wonderful stories she shared. All the family photos of great grandparents, aunts and uncles. Filling in the spaces like pieces of a puzzle. I loved her fierce independence and strong convictions. Her love and devotion to her family, especially Grandpa and Grandma. She felt deeply and wasn't afraid to show her emotions. Even when she was in pain, she could find a reason to laugh or giggle. I will miss her laugh, her open doors, and open heart. I pray she is happy and free. I pray she is with all those she missed so dearly. I will miss her dearly...until we meet again. I love you, Aunt Donna, with all my heart, Lisa Kay

You will be missed Aunt Donna. You will always have a special place in my heart. I bet you're already playing 500 rummy. Or doing a puzzle with grandpa. Much love your niece Karen
