Jim was one of the best neighbors we could have asked for when we moved in next door to him and Diane. He was an adoptive dad to us right from the get-go and always there to give us a good laugh with his stories. I will always remember having to yell at him for trying to cut our grass or wanting to shovel our snow when we were the young ones :)He will be a presence in this world that will truly be missed.We wish we could be there to hug you all and tell you in person how much he meant to us.- Shimron and Kathy Trammell (and Gizmo)
