Aunt Paula was a huge part of my life growing up. Her love and kindness was evident each time I spent time with her. I remember Aunt Paula wrapping me up in her fur coat and letting me fall asleep on her lap at a wedding. I always admired her. Love to all of her family and friends. Amy Girvan

Popp Family sent a virtual gift in honor of Paula.

We got to know this wonderful lady through Cheryl and Ed when they adopted Jimmy . We attended many Birthday parties, hockey games and grade school events with her and her husband. She always had a beautiful smile on her face and something nice to say about everyone. She played such a large part in the Piec family with the growing up of Jimmy, Melissa and Alex, vacations with them and a constant source of support and love. You will be missed. Please give my mom a hug on the other side.
