Lorraine Yoskovich lit a candle in honor of William.

The Hufnagle Family, My thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time. I remember how thoughtful he was when my father became ill. He came to the house and chatted about the old days cheering Dad up in his final days. He always stopped and talked and asked how things were going. He was a kind, generous and thoughtful man. I am sorry for your loss. Lorraine Yoskovich

Linda Dickison posted:

In the olden days, when we were growing up, we spent a lot of time visiting grandparents, aunts, uncles, and cousins on the weekend. I remember Uncle Bill as a character who always made people laugh. He was a full of life and loved to have fun. Even when he had to correct our behavior, he would make a humorous comment. He was a great uncle! Now he's God's newest guardian angel. Rest in peace, Uncle Bill. Love, Linda (Honeycutt) & Phil Dickison
