Mary Kelley lit a candle in honor of Letitia.

Letty was a wonderful woman with such a big heart. Her family was the most important thing in her life and she had so many friends here at Devon Square. We will miss her and we will hold onto her memories forever. Love, Mary and Fuzzy

You have been such a great Mom to your children. I can't wrap my head around this whole situation. I will miss you at the family birthday dinners Lisa prepares. I really don't know what to say because words just don't come to on what I would like to say. I know heaven has received a very special person. In deepest sympathy, Carol Hanson

When I was young, I remember you taking me to the pier. My Mickey mouse fishing pole in one hand and the matching tackle box in the other. I caught my first fish, the smallest bluegill ever. But I was so proud, running up and down the pier with it still on the hook to show everyone. You were then forever "Grandma Fisherman" to me. Or the time you gave me 2 balls of yarn, and let me tie up your whole apartment. Everyone knows, with how neat you kept everything that was a very unique activity I got to experience. There's too many memories to list. And even though I wish we had a little bit longer to make them, God has a different plan. I hope you know how much joy you brought to everyone and the impact you've made. I Love and will miss you Grandma Fisherman. Give PaDude a big hug for me.

Mom you made the best potato salad and shortbread cookies. You loved having fun and being with your family. So many happy memories. I shared the video of you last Christmas when you tried Owens oculus. Still makes me laugh 😊❤️
