Stephen Trousdale lit a candle in honor of Cindy.

I heart just sank when I got the call from Shannon of Cindy's passing. I met Cindy and her mom Bobbi when they lived next door to me in Madison Heights. Cindy had come over banging on my door telling me that her mom had fallen and needed help getting her up, of course I went to help. From that point on...For a year and half we talked and visited every day. We made dinner for each other quite often, Bobbi would always call me her son and Cindy and I would call each other brother and sister. When they moved out I was sad but we still kept in touch but not like we did as neighbors. When her mom passed my heart broke, she was such a wonderful woman and so sweet. When I moved to Tennessee Cindy was sad because I would be so far away but we still kept in touch every few months. I will always remember the fun times we had. My heart goes out to the entire family during this difficult time.
