Laura Holtzman lit a candle in honor of Emma.

Nana was so loving and kind, sweet and her hugs made everything feel better. I wasn't her grandchild yet she always treated me like one. I'm going to miss you Nana

Emma was a lady who was beautiful inside and outside. Her love for everyone was amazing. The laughter that was shared by Emma, Jr., Tom and myself while we played pinochle, ate popcorn and had an awesome time all while their 4 children and our two children and (Also Al Walton) were playing in their basement. We send prayers and sympathy to your family. May God's healing hands help through this difficult time. Love, Elsie Walton Stuhldreier and Hartmut Stuhldreier.
