Joe will be missed by so many. He was one of those people that made you feel special. He loved people and he always had a great sense of humor. He was my husband's childhood friend for many years. I'm sure they had a huge influence in each other's life. I only wish we would have kept in touch more over the years. Time just got away from us, and there's no going back. Love to you and your whole family. And we should keep in touch Sandy. I felt very close to both of you. Love Donna Walker
