Cora Hanley

APR 17, 1964 - NOV 25, 2022

Cora Hanley (Gouine), born April 17, 1964, passed away on November 25, 2022 at her home in Madison Heights at the age of 58. Cora was born in Detroit to Pauline Moran and the late Douglas Gouine. She spent most of her life growing up in the Metro Detroit area. Cora was a property manager for Vestevich Properties for over 20 years. She was a hardworking woman up till the day of her passing, she was very passionate about her work.

She leaves behind her children, Shelby Adams (Phil) of Royal Oak and David Hanley of Troy, her brothers and sisters Tina Galli (Steve), Pearl Gouine (James), Ann Hurchalla, Douglas Gouine, Ronald Gouine, Edward Gouine (Colleen) and Jennifer Gouine (Ryan), as well as many beloved nieces and nephews.

There were many titles she held with pride; Mother, Daughter, Sister, Aunt and Friend. She was a rock in the lives of the people that knew her and beautiful presence to anyone that met her. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends.

I was a coworker of Cora, and had great respect and affection for her. Her love for her family and loyalty to her friends were apparent. I loved hearing about the annual canoe trip with family honoring her late father, and the accomplishments of her children. Her integrity and work ethic were admirable. No one worked harder than Cora. My sincere condolences to her family. She loved you fiercely.
