I was so sorry to hear this news. Please accept my condolences. As a kid, he was imposing but so kind to me. I'm sure (like all our dads) we drove him a little nuts. He'll be missed. -Liz McHalpine

OMG I'm so sad to belatedly hear of Leis passing. He was a coworker and shirttail relative. But more so he was one of the finest people I've had the extreme pleasure of knowing. He was no ordinary electrician, he was a mentor to many and so kind hearted. The world is definitely a sadder place without him. Warren and Sue Anne Lake

Leo, so many fond memories as children growing up, riding our bikes, playing Army in the church field, our ping-pong and board games, setting up your train on the ping-pong table for Christmas, you and me delivering the Detroit News, and construction on many plastic models.
