Compassionate Heavenly Father, Thank You, because I know You are aware of the loss our family and friends of Diane have just suffered. I pray for my brother and the family today, asking that You console him in this moment of anguish. Let Your comforting presence be a soothing, soft rush of breath from the Holy Spirit, to soothe their aching hearts. Just as You are the God of all comfort, I ask that You grant them solace as they lean on You. Lord, hold them close and dry their tears, especially in this time of grief. In vulnerability and in strength, may they find refuge in Your promises, as You remind them that their sorrow is always met with Your tender passion. Help them remember that Your comfort is their ever present sanctuary, a safe place where they can find peace and strength to endure. In Jesus' name I pray it, Amen, Amen and Amen.
