I am deeply saddened over the passing of my friend VL. Over the past 12 years, we shared a special bond and created countless memories together. From shopping trips to dinners and on our many adventures, we were always there for each other. VL had a kind and generous spirit that touched the lives of everyone around him. He was always willing to lend a helping hand especially when it came to my dogs. His love for gardening was evident in the numerous vegetables that he would share with everyone. He taught me how to stock the freezer with corn can tomatoes but I think that was so I could make him a batch of my spaghetti sauce. I will truly miss our conversations, the laughter we shared, and the support we provided to one another. His presence in my life brought comfort and companionship, especially when I lost my father. His absence will be deeply felt as he had become family to me. May his soul rest in peace, and may his memory continue to inspire us to cherish the bonds we have with our family and friends. Your friend forever, Vicki Linder

VL was a man of strong character that showed kindness and compassion to those he met. Whenever I came to MI to visit I enjoyed having dinner and hearing about his life and spending time getting to know him. He will be missed. Sending his family and friends love and strength during this time of grief.
