I just found out of Dora's passing. It is now December. I bowled with Dora for many years. I kept in contact, calling twice a year. She was always an up person. I am so sorry I could not be there to pay my respects. Loved her and Lowell, Marie Kravetz

Like Randy I have fond memories of the Christmas gatherings at Uncle Lowell & Aunt Do's. Unfortunately, living in another country I have had little contact over the years. But the visits I did have I was always impressed by their kind character and graciousness. Wonderful examples for all of us to follow. Much love and prayers. Steve
