Mark Norman Hall

JAN 13, 1965 - OCT 10, 2024

Mark Norman Hall, age 59, passed away on October 10, 2024. He was born in Dearborn, Michigan on January 13, 1965.

Loving Husband of Elizabeth (Betsy) Hall for 29+ years and proud father of Grant, Drew and Lauren. Mark was preceded in death by his parents Caroline and Billie Hall and his brother Matthew Hall. He is survived by his siblings Mary K. Bieniek and Carrie Hall-Schalter.

He was a graduate of St. Alphonsus High School and a Journeyman of the Local Union 687 of Detroit & Metro Area United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. He previously worked at Slavic Butcher and Becker and George P. Johnson for many years.

In his youth, Mark traveled the country playing pool at various pool halls and thoroughly enjoyed reminiscing on the stories he brought back. He loved spending time with his family and was well-renowned for his “dad” jokes. Mark enjoyed working with his hands on various projects and spending time walking with his dog Rudy and later his children’s dogs Scout and Remy. He was happiest making memories with his family and could regularly be seen (or heard) at his children’s sporting events when they were younger.

Mark, You were a very dedicated & loving father & husband, as well as a down-to-earth & fun person with everyone. We have so many fond memories of the good times we shared, from when you were just a kid who served as ring bearer for our wedding, to your growth into a hard working, young family man. We will continue to pray for your soul and for the strength of your family. You will be missed. Love, Mary & Don Bieniek
