Jim was one of the anchor members at the FOP Lodge 130 and his presence will be greatly missed. I'm so sorry his time here ended so abruptly. I hope memories of Jim will eventually bring happiness and joy to everyone who knew him. Blessings to all who are grieving at this time.

I have several stories of working with Jim but one recently comes to mind. He would want to make change with me to use the vending machine for a soda. In return, he would give me frangible bullets. I'd leave work, forget the bullets were in my bag and the next morning I'd be swinging around a heavy purse with gobs of loose bullets. He made me laugh.
