Christine Michalec lit a candle in honor of Donald.

"Uncle Don" was always one of my favorite people. He always had a funny story to tell or would impart some of his wisdom to me in conversation. He always had a kind word or would take my hand in his to make me feel like I was the only person in the room he was speaking and listening to. What a special person he was! I am just thankful he was in our lives for such a wonderful amount of time. Peace and love to his immediate family - I know they will miss his light so much, hopefully the memories of him will help in the days ahead.

What a blessing you were to me...The last of a great generation! Uncle Don, thank you for helping shape me into the man I am today. Too many memories to list here but the most recent was the few hours we were blessed to spend with you on your 99th birthday. I will never forget your honesty (brutal at times...lol) but always with love and Grace. You will never be lonely again, spending eternity with those who went before you... please tell the Beaver I miss her and if the good Lord is willing, we will see one another again! Until then, you will live on in our hearts...

I'll never forget the joy on Gramps' face when Chris trimmed his eyebrows in 2023. What a beautiful memory!

Going to miss really miss you Grandpa. Though I live quite far away now. I'm thankful for the time we spent together when I was able to come back. One last trip up north with my mom's side of the grandsons after her passing, and just the previous Easter where he got to meet his great-grandson Aiden. Love you grandpa.
