I am so sorry he is gone. Brian and I have known each other since the age of 14 at Beecher Jr. High. What a cutie, and a little bit of trouble. Just enough to make him independent, bucking the man to say, and curious to where we would wonder what was making him tick. Getting to know him as we got older, showed me that there aren't many like him. He was still stubborn, in his way but so very loyal, loving and humble. A great, great man. He has been a blessing in many ways. More than most will know. I know that he believed in God and the afterlife, yet he felt that he didn't deserve it. We spoke about God's grace and how none of us deserve it. I know the kind of man he was and I knew his heart. He deserves it all. I am so very thankful for him being in my life.
