“ I have known the DeLisle family for over 40 years. Anna and I got very close when Sherry went through her change in lifestyle in the late 70s. I believe we held each other up, and helped each other understand and accept Sherry for who she is. Beyond that I had turned my back on the church, and Anna was very instrumental in turning me back around, and helping me to raise my eyes to God and getting me back as one of his children. Anna was also like a mother to me and an additional grandmother to my son. She used to watch him one Saturday a month and I know how much she and Michael enjoyed it. Anna was my friend, a mother figure, a mentor and an all-around wonderful human being, that helped shape me into who I am today. She will always be in my heart.

“ Stan, Sherry, Jerry, Michael, John, Laura.
I am sorry I cannot share this time with you and try to ease the pain you are feeling. You loved Anna as a wife, mother and grandmother. Anna thought it was wonderful all the things you did for her Michael in this part year. John she loved it when you stopped by to check on them and it meant a lot to her. Sherry you had a special relationship with your mother that is hard to heal. Look at the sky and imagine your mom is in one of those twinkling stars looking down on you. You will be able to speak to your mom and it will heal the pain.
Stan, you loved Anna from day one. You will miss her forever. You had these past few years to be able to see her shining face and hear her voice. You will have two little doggies that are looking to you for their comfort. Maggie and Rufus love you very much.
I am here for all of you and wish I could have been there.
Love Mary

“ Stanley, Sherry, Jerry, Laura and family. I'm very sorry to hear of Anna's passing. You have my deepest sympathy and condolences. I have many fond memories of laughing and stories told at the family gatherings with Anna, Stanley and family. My most recent visit with Anna, Stanley and Sherry was several years ago at my dad's 90th birthday celebration in Michigan. It was great to see them, share stories and laughs. Anna will truly be missed by many.
